Join Dione Pompa, LPC, for a look at the challenging world of engaging mental health clients through telehealth platforms. This 2 hour seminar will not only provide tips and tricks for building trust and rapport and maintaining engagement in a virtual world but also look at some safety concerns to keep in mind.

Dione graduated from West Texas A&M University with a BA in Art. Dione holds two Masters Degrees from Emporia State University in Mental Health Counseling and Art Therapy Counseling. Dione has worked with a variety of populations such as addictions, physical and intellectual disabilities, severe and persistent mental illnesses, children, adolescents, and incarcerated individuals. Currently, we are honored to have her a part of our school-based therapy team at MHA.
