

Social Work Ethics during COVID-19

Bailey Blair, LMSW, will present this 2 hour webinar focusing on the ethical guidelines surrounding the provision of social work services in the face of global disaster, including the use of technology, protection of confidentiality, and responsibility to persons served and the world at large.

Bailey is a master's level social worker with more than 10 years in micro- and macro-level practice. In addition to her role as Clinical Liaison at MHA, Bailey is the lead trainer for the Kansas Certified Peer Specialist Training offered through KDADS as well as the cofounder and lead trainer of StopSuicideCT, a local nonprofit aimed at reducing suicide through education and awareness. Bailey is also an Associate Clinical Professor at Wichita State University's School of Social Work.
